U.N.C.I.O. HITS ROCK BOTTOM

Smaller Nations Out To Inflict Negative Defeat

RUSSIAN ATTITUDE ON VETO ISSUE SPREADS GLOOM OVER FRISCO TALKS

From S. A. Sabavala, "Chronicle" Special Representative
SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.

In my last despatch I ventured to predict an unenviable week for San Francisco as from today. Well, the week is here. Only it is even more unpalatable than my gloomiest forebodings. With the Big Five deadlocked over the veto in a four-to-one split U.N.C.I.O. has been brought to a standstill. The work of the committees and commissions unreal quality.

RUSSIA CLINGS TO YALTA DEAL

Russia stands firm on the Yalta decision. The interpretation of the Big Three is what is causing all the trouble. The Soviet feels that it is not what is called a loose interpretation on the veto question then it will not be able to enforce what it considers to be a rigid and correct interpretation of the Yalta decision on Poland.

This view is endorsed by many delegates here and is vigorously put forward by the New York "Times".

MORE DELAYS

Meanwhile, the whole question has been referred back to Moscow which means more discouraging delays, in prestige and new value. The U. N. C. I. O. will terminate in a series of day. It is quite obvious that unless Russia changes her attitude within the next few days, the entire negotiations will be a waste of time. Nations who are equally adamant will force a negative defeat on the Big Five to make their victory permanent. However, they need a two-third majority which is difficult to get. It is realized by all that the longer the Conference drags on, the more snags it will come across. Hence, the Big Five have practically issued an ultimatum to the commission to complete their work by a certain date or else the Steering Committee will take over all the unfinished business.

INGLORIOUS COMPROMISES

It is felt more and more that U. N. C. I. O. will terminate in a series of inglorious compromises with all outstanding questions left over for the Big Three to disentangle. This does not include trusteeships in spite of General Romulo's gallant stand. The Big Five viewpoint on this matter, which is unsatisfactory, will somehow be pushed through. This is due to the fact that while the smaller nations have taken a keen academic interest in the question, they are not prepared to make another major issue out of it since none of them have colonies or mandates to bother over.

NEWSMAN'S REACTION

Anyhow General Romulo's appeal has elicited an interesting reaction from a world famous American newsman who I am afraid will have to be unmentioned for the moment. This is what he told me. We came to the Conference fully prepared to champion the cause of the oppressed peoples but because M. Molotov stole out thunder in the early days of the Conference and because he publicly chastised Great Britain on India, we naturally had to oppose him and drop the idea.

Why, naturally, I asked, and there Mes the crux of the whole world problem. Unless and until the Big Three decide to co-operate in sponsoring world progress instead of seeking individual and transitory glory we cannot have peace.

The newsmen agreed with me but thought this was impossible at the present stage.

BETTER THINGS AHEAD

And so the sordid business goes on. It is impossible to describe the disappointment felt over here. Most of the remarks are unprintable anyway, but public opinion is still hanging on to the hope that even with a small and very limited success U. N. C. I. O. will be the stepping stone to bigger and better things.

Soong Welcomes Foreign Capital For China

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5 (Reuter): China's new Premier, Dr. T. V. Soong, addressing the China-America Council of Commerce and Industry, said that China would welcome "foreign capital and skill" in post-war reconstruction.

Dr. Soong also declared that he looked for a speedy composition of the differences between the National Chinese Government and the Communists. He added: Cases of Chinese resentment towards foreigners in the past have existed because of exploitation backed by force. With China mistress in her own house, she will have nothing to fear from foreign exploitation. Most of the existing state monopolies were created to meet war-time needs and I expect them to disappear.

WAVELL IN NEW DELHI

Presides Over Executive Council Meeting

NEW DELHI, June 5 (A.P.I.): Lord Wavell the Viceroy and Lady Wavell arrived at New Delhi at 12-35 p. m. to-day.

Lord Wavell was received at the aerodrome by Sir John Colville, Acting Viceroy Lt. Gen. Sir John Swyne Acting Commander-in-Chief, Sir Sulistat, Air Marshal L. N. Hollinghurst, Air Officer C. G. Mr. A. K. with Chief Commissioner, Delhi, Lord Wavell's son Major Wavell and a number of military officers.

Those who saw Lord Wavell at the aerodrome remarked that he looked "extremely cheerful" as he came out of the plane and shook hands with friends assembled nearby.

Sir Evan Jaffer, who is in charge of the hard work which the "mission" is known to have imposed on him.

Statement Next Week

NEW DELHI, June 5 (A. P. I.): Lord Wavell the Viceroy of India, presided over a meeting of the Executive Council to-day a few hours after his arrival here.

It is expected that a further meeting of the Council will be held to-morrow.

The proposals are not expected to be published before June 12 or 13 and in the meanwhile it is assumed that the views expressed by members of the Council so far are in the nature of a preliminary statement to be communicated to H. M. G.

One of the speculations about the nature of the proposals which is gaining ground is that Mr. Gandhi, Mr. Jinnah, the eleven Premiers past and present, of the Provinces and leaders of parties the Central Assembly will be called to a conference to examine the proposals and give their decision on them.

Further Indianisation of the Executive Council so as to transfer the portfolios to Indians is a favourite idea. The so-called Desai formula giving equal representation to Congress and Muslim League parties in the interim Government, is another idea which is finding favour. That the "interim" Government will be expected to function within the framework of the present constitution is a further point on which non-official reports agree.

No Amnesty

The belief—which at one time was strong—that the release of the remaining members of the Congress working Committee is inevitable is now receding, although it is not expected that the process now followed of gradual release on medical grounds will be checked.

NOON IN DELHI

About 15 minutes after Lord Wavell's arrival, Sir Piroz Khan Noon landed by a separate plane, and was received by Sir Sultan Ahmed.

DROP IN LEND-LEASE AID

WASHINGTON, June 4 (Reuter): President Truman today asked Congress for appropriation for Lend-Lease—which reflecting the end of hostilities in Europe—was 1,563,899,000 dollars (approximately Rs. 4,88,00,00,000) less than that for the current year.

President Truman also proposed that France, Belgium and the Netherlands be assisted in financing their purchases of equipment and supplies through funds of the Export and Import Bank (United States Government Agency).

President Truman pledged that "Our recent Lend-Lease agreements with France, Belgium and the Netherlands will be carried out by Lend-Lease funds to the fullest extent consistent with the changed war conditions and basic war time purposes of Lend-Lease aid."

FRENCH GOVT'S DECISION ON LEVANT PROBLEM

Egyptian Political Circles Not Unhopeful About Settlement

LONDON, June 5 (Reuter): The French Government's decision to-day to submit the whole problem of the Middle East to a conference of the Big Five Powers has carried the question of the Levant to a new level.

A communique issued after to-day's meeting of the French Cabinet said: "The Government has decided to propose that within the framework of international co-operation and in agreement with the interested states, the problems of the East as a whole be submitted to a conference of the Big Five Powers—Britain, the United States, France, Russia and China. OPTIMISTIC ABOUT SETTLEMENT"

Reports from Cairo, where the Arab League Council has gone into secret session, stated to-day that Egyptian political circles were not unhopeful that a settlement would be reached. But Syrian and Lebanese quarters there still declared that it was impossible to reach a direct understanding with France according to Martin Herlihy, Reuter's special correspondent in Cairo.

The feeling is growing throughout the Levant states that to ensure a CANBERRA, June 5 (Reuter): Mr. Churchill's statement, that Labour would need a "Gestapo" to carry out its policy was raised in the Australian House of Representatives to-day by Mr. Rowland James, Labour Member for Hunter, New South Wales.

"It is not very becoming for a man who has endeared himself to the world to stoop to the murky depths of the sewer," he said. He asked Mr. Joseph B. Chifley, the Acting Prime Minister, to "remind Mr. Churchill that Labour Governments of Australia and New Zealand had not stooped to such tactics."

Mr. Chifley replied: "The leader of one country should not interfere with the politics and domestic affairs of other countries."

"I do not propose to do anything about it. I assume Labour leaders in Britain are capable of replying."

Big Four Agreement On Occupation Of Germany

Allies Assume Supreme Power: Demands On Vanquished

WASHINGTON, June 5 (Reuter): A Big Four agreement on the occupation of Germany was signed in Berlin today by Marshal Zhukov, Field Marshal Sir Bernard Montgomery, General Dwight Eisenhower, General de Lattre de Tassigny.

The agreement came into force today at 14-00 hours.

ALLIES ASSUME SUPREME POWER

LONDON, June 5 (Reuter): The Moscow radio today reported that a joint agreement among the four Big Powers, Britain, the United States, the Soviet Union and France was signed today assuming supreme power in Germany.

BACK TO OLD FRONTIERS

A joint announcement on behalf of Britain, the Soviet Union, France and the United States broadcast by the Moscow radio to-day says that German frontiers have been withdrawn to those held by her on December 31, 1937, before the invasion of Austria and Czechoslovakia.

The announcement said: "The declaration of Germany's defeat has led to assumption of supreme power in respect of Germany by the Governments of the U.S.S.R., the United Kingdom, the United States and the Provisional Government of the French Republic."

German armed forces on land, on sea and in the air have suffered complete defeat and have surrendered unconditionally, and Germany, which bears the responsibility for the war, is unable to oppose the will of victors.

Germany's unconditional surrender has been carried out and Germany has made herself dependent upon such demands as may be made now or hereafter.

Germany has no Central Government or authority which could assume responsibility for the maintenance of order, administration of the country and the welfare of the people. The Allied Representatives, acting by the authority of their respective governments and in the interests of the United Nations, accordingly make the following declaration: "The Government of the U.S.S.R., the United Kingdom, the United States and the French Republic are hereby assuming supreme power in Germany, power which was wielded by the German Government, Supreme Command and other Provincial Municipal Governments in Germany."

NO ANNEXATION OF GERMANY

The assumption of such power, rights and authority for the forementioned object does not represent annexation of Germany.

The Governments of the U.S.S.R., the United Kingdom, the United States and the French Republic will also determine the status of Germany or any province thereof, which (Continued on page 4)

DEMANDS ON GERMANY

It is precisely under these circumstances that it is essential, without prejudice to subsequent decisions which may be taken in respect of Germany, to issue orders regarding the part of the German military forces, preservation of order in Germany, and administration of the country, and to announce immediate requirements with which Germany must comply.

The representatives of the Supreme Command of the U.S.S.R., the United Kingdom, the United States and the French Republic, hereinafter called the Allied Representatives, acting by the authority of their respective governments and in the interests of the United Nations, accordingly make the following declaration: "The Government of the U.S.S.R., the United Kingdom, the United States and the French Republic are hereby assuming supreme power in Germany, power which was wielded by the German Government, Supreme Command and other Provincial Municipal Governments in Germany."

RUSSIA MAY WALK OUT OF U. N. C. I. O.

LONDON, June 5 (U.P.I.): The possibility of Russia walking out of the World Security Conference is envisaged by Mr. Leonard Wibberley, the "Evening News" correspondent at San Francisco, in a despatch to his paper.

If Britain, America, China and France continue in their opposition to Russian viewpoints, and Russia is defeated in the plenary session, she is likely to leave the Conference, he says.

SOMERSET CRITICISES GOVT. POLICY ON JAP CURRENCY IN BURMA

Condemns Action Of Military Authorities As Harsh And Ill-Judged

LONDON, June 2 (Reuters). During the Burma debate Mr. Somerset De Chair, one of the group of Conservatives who makes study of Burmese affairs, referred to reports of the calling in of the Japanese currency in Burma, which, he said, imposed considerable hardship on those who had no other currency during Japanese occupation.

Mr. De Chair was referring to criticism in British newspapers, inclining to the "Times" which described the action of the military authorities as harsh and ill-judged, as likely to precipitate a crisis which should be avoided at all costs and calling urgently for expert as well as speedy remedies.

Mr. Amery told Mr. De Chair that currency was at present a matter for the War Office. If Government announced that Britain would honour Japanese currency at the general rate, every liberated territory would be flooded with an unlimited amount of Japanese notes, he said.

Mr. Amery said in Rangoon the whole reserve stock of Japanese notes seemed to have been looted and distributed freely.

Government was pursuing the same policy as the Americans in the Philippines in not acknowledging Japanese notes, but there had been limited recognition in various local districts where hardship had been created. He thought transition from Japanese to new currency was continuing without extensive hardship.

He hoped the Governor would return to Burma before the end of the year. The Governor would shortly deliver a broad statement of policy in his own terms. Rangoon should be in working order very soon. The difficulty of getting away the rice crop would be chiefly lack of river steamers and boats upcountry.

There was no question of reprisal or action against ordinary citizens official or private who in the interests of their own people, conformed to Japanese orders during occupation. It was only those actively concerned in promoting the war against Britain whom Mr. Amery would not single out for punishment.

FURTHER AMERICAN PENETRATION INTO JAP-OWNED TERRITORIES

MANILA, June 3 (Reuters). American troops in a small amphibious operation made a new landing in southern Mindanao (Southern Philippines) on Friday, General MacArthur announced.

The manoeuvre was designed to envelop and decimate isolated Japanese garrisons.

The landing was made at Luayon, 75 miles south of Davao on the western shore of Mindanao, there was only slight opposition and the Americans quickly penetrated inland.

Moving north-east from Davao, troops of the 24th Infantry Division liberated numerous towns in a drive inland on Japanese forces pocketed between the Davao and Taimo rivers.

The Luayon landing was supported by aerial and naval units, and the 24th Infantry Division push by bombers and fighters.

Troops of the 25th Infantry Division in Luzon, continue to advance into the Cagayan valley from Santa Fe. To the east, troops of the 33rd Infantry division occupied a position on highway 11, 7 1/2 miles north-east of Baguio.

American and Australian Air Forces carried their neutralising attacks in Borneo, attacking with more than 140 tons of bombs, air facilities, personnel and supply areas, and supporting Australian ground forces in snatching operations on Tarakan Island.

American rocket-firing planes caused many fires and personnel casualties north of Jesselton, while some Japanese shells shelled shore installations near Lahud Datu. Other aerial units attacked Japanese outposts in Celebes.

American marines gained 1,000 yards in the west coast sector of Okinawa below Shuri, and crossed the Naha Yonabaru east-west highway. Other American troops captured the Okinawa village two miles from Shuri, pushed on below Chape and seized the high ground near Kamizato.

On the east coast other American troops pushed southward in a move north of Jesselton, cutting off a peninsula and reopening Nakagusaki Harbour, once the anchorage of the Japanese fleet.

MAHADEVBHAI
SERVED THE POOR

Committee Appeals For Funds
For Memorial To Perpetuate
His Ideal

Shri Mahadeo Desai Memorial Fund
Committee has issued the following appeal.

The late Mahadevhai was one of the priceless jewels of India. Among the followers of Gandhiji whom Gandhiji looks upon as his own sons Ma-hadevhai had achieved special distinction by his intense devotion as a beloved pupil, son and companion.
He was by nature a devotional person, but there was in him a rare, harmonious combination of a follower of the three Yogas, Bhakti
Yoga, Karma Yoga and Jnana Yoga.
The first words to which Gandhiji gave utterance when Mahadevhai passed away were, that "he was truly a Yogi." Verily, Mahadevhai not only lived a Yogi's life but he was also fortunate enough to die a Yogi's death.

During these last two and half years, there have been put forward, on and off, various proposals for raising a fitting memorial to perpetuate his unique services to the nation.
According to Gandhiji, for those who wish to raise a memorial to Ma-hadevhai, for his friends and his admirers, the best service they can render to his memory is to dedicate themselves to the tasks to which Ma-hadevhai devoted himself during his life-time and to induce others to serve with single-mindedness the causes for which he strove.

Keeping this desire of Gandhiji in mind, the Gujarat Central Committee in charge of the Constructive Programme has decided to appeal for funds to the extent of Rs. 10 lakhs to raise a memorial worthy of Ma-hadevhai and to collect the sum before the next anniversary of his death, namely 15th August, 1945. The object of the memorial will be to pursue the ideal of service along the paths which Mahadevhai pursued, with faith and zeal, and to spread the gospel of knowledge and work in the countryside.

The service of the poor is the main directing force of Gandhiji's life. Ma-hadevhai, all through his life, made the service of the poor his motto following the paths that Gandhiji trod. Hence the memorial merely seeks to serve the cause of the poor along lines cherished by Mahadev-hai.

A THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

In all debates, let Truth be thy aim, not victory or an unjust interest and endeavour to gain, rather than to expose thy antagonist.

—William Penn.

The Bombay Chronicle

MATRICULATION RESULTS

This year's Matriculation results of the Bombay University show a pass percentage of 37.4, as against 34.1 of last year and 34.5 the average of the last seven years, during which time the percentage ranged from 30 to 33. The results during these years were thus fairly steady and otherwise satisfactory in the present conditions. The sudden and sharp drop to 37.4 per cent is regrettable and demands careful scrutiny. The vagaries of examinations in general are notorious and have led to international investigations to find out ways and means of minimising them. Several of the candidates, however, have shown a marked improvement in the complete abolition of examinations. But here we assume that that suggestion is not practicable. The improvement of examinations is the only alternative. For that very reason we suggest a careful scrutiny whenever there are apparent irregularities or an abnormal percentage of passes.

The present sharp drop from the septennial average of 34.5 to 37.4 is such an irregularity. Can it be satisfactorily explained in the sense that there is nothing really wrong with the results that the candidates this year were far below the average? If it is so, it should be proved after a proper scrutiny. It is not fair to assume that explanation as a matter of course. When small numbers are involved there may be sharp and sudden differences in the progress of the candidates in different parts which are not a safe principle of probability. But when large numbers are involved, the local and other differences cancel one another and, in normal conditions, the quality of the total number of candidates remains substantially the same. In any case a serious sudden change cannot be lightly assumed; it must be proved by a scrutiny. To say that the results themselves are a proof is only to beg the question.

Some examiners are believed to have held the view that a number of schools send up their students for the examination indiscriminately without any preliminary test. Our information is that most schools do have a preliminary test except those which are strict in the admissions to the matriculation standard. And this is to be expected as schools are jealous of their reputation and tend to be rather too strict than too lenient in sending up their students. Anyway, it is protesting too much to say that there has been a sudden change of policy in this respect on the part of a large number of schools. It has also been pleaded that owing to the use of the vernacular medium of instruction and examination, many permitted in the case of many subjects there has been a considerable falling off in the standard of English in many schools. But surely it cannot be contended that there has been considerable deterioration in the standard of English in the candidates who were examined in English alone and that this percentage is higher than it was during the last seven years. If so, it seems more natural to infer that there was something more wrong with the examination in English than with the examinations.

One of the most plausible explanations of this year's bad results is that after the last year's inquiry into the malpractices at the Matric examination the examiners and the moderators this year were extremely careful. But it may be that the examiners, in their anxiety not to be found to be indulgent, were too strict, forgetting that more injustice might be done to students by undue strictness than by undue indulgence. The degree of strictness needs to be determined after a careful inquiry. Some say that in view of the recent check on malpractices this year's results are not only just but may set the standard for the ensuing years. If so, here is a double danger. Unless the justice of this year's results is proved instead of being merely assumed. We shall conclude for the present, accepting our sage's view, that whenever there are sharp deviations from, say, the septennial average of passes a suitable inquiry should be held unless, of course, a satisfactory explanation of the irregularity is obvious.

Frankly Speaking

Hearst Press And Asiatic

Another race challenge to Asia has come from America. This time it is more noisy. The Hearst Press, probably the biggest newspaper chain in the United States, calls for closing the doors to Asiatic immigration. Asiatics, Mr. Hearst believes, are a danger to our national (white?) interests. Indeed, nations, he warns, can be and have been conquered by migration more fatally than by invading armed forces. The Hearst papers traditionally sensational and more vociferous than influential. But, their outburst represents, in this instance, part of a big campaign by White racists in America against Asiatic immigration. It is the portent of a danger that is where its importance lies.

The Grand Mufti

We have often pointed out and emphasised yesterday that the action of the Grand Mufti, Haj Amin el-Husseini, is not a war criminal but a traitor. As a British-protected subject he will be alleged guilty of infringing the Palestine laws. The report speaks for itself. The Grand Mufti holds that the Grand Mufti is neither a war criminal nor a traitor. But it is necessary that they should speak out in no uncertain voice. And they must speak out now.

The Hero As Tory Pedler

It is to be doubted if the more sober and sensible among British Conservatives have not been surprised and felt embarrassed by their leader's all out electioneering eloquence on the B. C. The Labour daily, the "Daily Herald", quotes Mr. Herbert Morrison as calling it a "crazy broadcast". It was not much short of that. It was all but crazy because no one, least of all a great world statesman could have ordinarily made himself so cheap as did Mr. Churchill. He spoke in the worst manner of a commercial traveller-cum-propagandist, loudly shouting his wares and ever more loudly wailing against those of others. He indulged liberally in exaggeration, misrepresentation and panic-mongering. And he decisively degraded himself from the position of a national leader to a party chief. In the process he even forgot that he had great Allies, eloquently admired by himself all these years, whom he was now denouncing by direct implication. Mr. Churchill may or may not come back as Premier but by that one broadcast, he personally has done his best to lose a unique place in British history which might have been his.

Glaring Oddity

But why did he forget himself so far and so surprisingly? We do not think that Mr. Churchill's native pugnacity and maybe also a certain unbalance produced by sense of success as war leader are sufficient answers. It is quite possible that Mr. Churchill's outburst is the result of panic, a strong apprehension that the Labour Party may beat the Conservatives at the General Election. If Mr. Churchill's broadcast represents the alarming consciousness of growing unpopularity of the Conservative Party, it is doubly welcome. There is one point of some direct interest to India. Mr. Churchill was, of course, addressing British electors and confined himself to the domestic side of British politics. But he spoke with pride of freedom and democracy which are the privilege and tradition of British tain. They were such precious and worthy blessings that he proclaimed himself their ardent and militant champion. And Mr. Churchill is also the man who is determinedly proud of owning, in the most undemocratic way, an Empire! There is no oddity more perverse and repulsive than democracy at home and totalitarian autocracy over hundreds of millions abroad.

Requisition Of Milk By Government

The recent orders by Government to requisition milk of certain dairymen have created alarm among the consumers of milk also. Some of the dairymen on whom such orders are served have informed their consumers that they will not be supplied with milk as usual. From the official explanation in the Press it is gathered that Government only wants to purchase surplus milk from some dairymen for subsidised milk centres. If this is so there seems to be no need for the dairymen to discontinue supply of milk to their steady customers. Whatever may have occasioned such a measure it is evident that there is lack of co-operation among the various agencies concerned, which creates unnecessary misunderstandings and differences of opinion. This gives a setback to the attempts for solving the milk problem. As long as the producers, consumers and the Government do not fully co-operate, the question of milk supply cannot be solved.

Let it be realised that such a lack of co-operation, and experimental measures with regard to milk question, amount to tampering with lives of human beings and cattle and worsens the situation. It is therefore essential to put various measures proposed to be taken to the test of practicability rather than relying on statistical considerations, departmental decisions or technical dogmas. With regard to this question, the League has already submitted to the Government, that instead of acquiring long-standing convenient arrangements for distribution among local consumers, it is advisable to put up collection centres at suburbs like Virar, Bassein Road, Sopbala and Kalyan, and acquire all milk for subsidised centres. This will supply the needs of the Government without disturbing local arrangements of distribution to consumers, by dairymen. Milk from the suburbs referred to above generally goes to shops and markets and hence it would be economic and convenient to all concerned. It is, however, essential that contracts should be made of a definite duration.

Even if the Government succeeds in its plan, it will be at the cost of other regular customers. The only way to solve the problem of supply, lies, therefore, in increasing the production by sending out all useful milk to the suburbs, saving she-goats, obtaining more fresh milk buffaloes importing milk from the countryside and prescribing minimum per capita consumption. Any delay in the above measures would be detrimental to the interests of producers and consumers.

What Is A Criminal Fraud?

In Legal Jurisprudence there is no definition for the word "Fraud" from the criminal point of view, as per author or judge has tried to define it in a sentence because its nature is "protean". Sir James Stephen has well described it in several sentences. Its definition must be such as to exclude civil frauds and innocent frauds. The same time it should include all the ingredients of a criminal fraud. I had an occasion to read the commentary on section 24 of the Indian Penal Code written by Sir Hari Singh Gour, a leading Indian author on the Indian Penal Code. I thought I ought to have a definition for my own guidance. I tried it and that definition has shaped itself into a rhyme. I hope it is all correct.

A criminal fraud is a deceit, A suppression or a secrecy, Planned for a possible benefit, And/or a possible injury.

Dastardly Attack On Journalist

The foul and dastardly attack of throwing spirit on Mulla Abbas Aurangabadi, a well known scholar of Arabic and Editor of the weekly journal "Munshi", which was made on him on May 26th April 1945 by a group of men, is a most disgraceful and heinous act. The purpose of the attack was to promote the well-being of the Bohra community and which also promises to fight the battle of the under-dogs, has for reasons beyond comprehension remained silent regarding this incident. The only way to public meeting of this society been called to condemn the deed but even its President has not condescended to voice his protest even on humanitarian grounds. The Sportsman's Sportsfolio

By J. C. Maitra

The silly incident is still the talk of the Coopersage. How he managed to escape punishment at the hands of the W.I.F.A. Committee is still a mystery. His offence was so glaring that it could only result in suspension—even though for a short period—particularly in view of the fact that he has been playing in Bombay for the last two or three seasons. If he kept the Bulldogs and the Navy in the dark about his feasting propensities, the weight of his guilt is heavier still. At the same time, it is the duty of Sports officers of both the teams to see that their players do not play for other teams. If one of our mushroom growths had done something of this kind, the whole constitution of the W.I.F.A. would have been thrown at its face and severe penalties inflicted to uphold the majesty of the law. However that is by the way.

MANDON'S EXAMPLE
The E.H.Q. seems to be the League season turned out on Saturday to see two Indian teams fighting for its honours. I have not the least doubt in my mind that the number would have been increased if one of the contending parties was prominent Service Combination. But in consequence with the present policy of the W.I.F.A. Committee such engagements are discouraged and therefore teams have been kept back for the monsoon days—for reasons, I need not repeat here.

By the way, isn't it rather funny that the E.H.Q. Captain of the Tata's, who advocates boots for all occasions, was himself playing barefooted in this match! An ounce of example is more telling than a ton of precept. Manton, who has been cutting out the frills, Kadirvelu!

The match in question was a thrilling affair with two of our leading cricketers, D. Manton (formerly W.A. Staff) and South Indians filling the picture. It was a great day for Kadirvelu, the acrobatic custodian of the latter. But for his magnificent goal-keeping, the South Indians would have lost heavily. It is useless to tell him that he might be as effective as he is minus his acrobatics, because he seems to have developed them as a second nature. But he is a source of jealousy of some of our Committee Members because they themselves are so very fond of performing somersaults! Any way, it would do Kadirvelu a world of good if he cuts out the frills in his measure.

SOUTH INDIANS LEAD
The South Indians by holding the T.T.L. to a one-goal-all draw, retain their top position in the League Table with 9 points to their credit. So far they have played five games in all. But with some of their stiffest battles with the Service teams still in the offing they are hardly likely to hold their position. The Police, who are their attacking line considerably, Berrington Karunakar and Raymond they have nobody worth his place in

INDIA'S DESTINY UNDER CONGRESS TO SHOW WORLD MORAL VALUES

Jairamdas' Address At Convocation Of Citizenship College

BOMBAY, Tuesday.—The Convocation of the Citizens' College was held at Sunderland Hall this evening. Sri Jairamdas Daulatram presided.

Mr. Nageshwar Master and Mr. D. S. Karve, General Secretaries, All-India Students' Congress, welcomed the President and other speakers who had been invited for the occasion.

Mr. Hari Krishna Mehta expressed his desire to learn the student viewpoint, he was not one of them who advised the students to follow the Congress blindly. The students had to examine all ideologies impartially and dispassionately and follow what they considered wise, fair and practicable. They had to study the "pros and cons" of things carefully before they pledged their loyalty.

English education in India, he said, was introduced to create a body of men who would not be the mere imitators of the West. It was a pity that such a small percentage of students had political awakening. This was one of the reasons why India was still a dependency.

Colleges like the present, he said, should aim to popularise national sentiment—a nationalism which aimed at the freedom of the country and not at imperialist exploitation. He hoped that the Citizenship College would become a permanent body and grow over India.

Prof. N. G. Ranga, defined citizenship as the readiness to stand and serve the country's cause, when the call was given. Those who ran away when the country called could not be called true and proper citizens. The glistered their condemnation of this cowardly attack.

Amidst this spontaneous sympathy and interest evinced by the press and public bodies and also private individuals, the total disconcert shown by the Dawoodi Bohra Conference (now termed and known as the Dawoodi Bohra Society) on this matter is deplorable.

The Dawoodi Bohra Society which calls itself a progressive and philanthropic institution and which proposes to put before the public a very ambitious programme to promote the well-being of the Bohra community and which also promises to fight the battle of the under-dogs, has for reasons beyond comprehension remained silent regarding this incident. The only way to public meeting of this society been called to condemn the deed but even its President has not condescended to voice his protest even on humanitarian grounds. Punjab Govt. Bill To Extend Suppression Of Indecent Advertisement

LAHORE, June 4 (A. P. I.).—The Punjab Government are preparing legislation to extend the suppression of Indecent Advertisements Act to the Press for introduction in the Provincial Assembly as early as possible. A Press "communiqué" issued by the Home Secretary to the Punjab Government explaining the reasons for this step points out that during the last two years the Punjab Press in general and the Indian languages section in particular have displayed an ever-increasing tendency to devote more and more space to indecent advertisements.

It has created disgust among the public who have from time to time proposed to Government against the appearance in the Press of these advertisements. Government have always had some reason to believe in the sense of responsibility that the Provincial Press has generally shown towards the moral welfare of the public, but they are unable to understand why in this particular matter a section of the Press has failed to see its way to accept any advice or warning given to him.

Even action under the Indian Penal Code against the publication in some newspapers of obscene advertisements had produced no salutary effect on the Government now consider a stage has been reached when a Bill is being prepared extending the Suppression of Indecent Advertisement Act to the Press for introduction in the Assembly as early as possible.

TETE TETE

WITHOUT COMMENT—

LONDON, June 5.—The position of Haj Amin el-Husseini, formerly Mufti of Jerusalem, is arousing interest here. I understand, writes "Globe's" diplomatic correspondent, that the British official view is that the ex-Mufti is not a war criminal, but a traitor. As a British-protected subject he will be alleged guilty of infringing the Palestine laws.

"Political quarters (in London) are assuming that Lord Wavell has not gone back empty-handed," writes "The Observer".

They assume correctly. We have reliable knowledge of the fact that Lord Wavell invariably travels with a hand bag—contents strictly private and personal.

The London "Daily Herald" headlines the Conservative Prime Minister's latest talk "Churchill's Crazy Broadcast".

There is, however, method in it. "A Socialist State" warned Mr. Churchill "should not afford to suffer opposition".

As the Imperial British State can't afford ditto ditto in the Empire.

Glowing with pride, Mr. Churchill exclaimed "Here in old England, in Great Britain, in this glorious island, the cradle and citadel of free democracy throughout the world...."

"Throughout the world!" Heavens!

"I stand," the Conservative Chief proclaimed, "for the sovereign freedom of the individual within laws which freely elect a Parliamentary Government. Simultaneously and therefrom, I stand for the sovereignty of all Britishers over India, Burma, Malaya, Africa, etc. under laws freely passed by a British Parliament, and enforced by—well Mr. Churchill didn't say, but he did mention something about dangerous Gestapo rule etc."

Warning his people against allowing Socialists to "monkey with the credit of Britain"—which, of course, should always remain in the possession of Tory capitalists and financiers—Mr. Churchill solemnly promised that to maintain the purchasing power of the pound sterling he would rather place upon all the rich, and poor alike the heaviest burden of taxation....

You see, Mr. Churchill is determined that there SHALL be Equality between the rich and the poor at least in sacrifices. The rich cannot get away with superior privileges in everything. The poor too shall be brought into their own even though it only means losing their own.

And incidentally, there is also, of course India's sterling battle to preserve the pound sterling, save Britain from Socialism and maintain the great blessings to India of British Imperialism.

"VOICE OF REAL CHURCHILL"

ORPINGTON, (KENT), June 5 (Reuters).—The Labour Member of Parliament, Ernest Brown, criticised Mr. Churchill's broadcast in a speech here to-night describing it as the voice of the real Churchill.

Recounting Mr. Churchill's "failures" Mr. Brown said that he was the man who even tried to prevent settlement of the Indian problem and who all his life has shown preference for pomp and wealth as against the interests of the ordinary people.

DEMAND ON LABOUR SERVICES
(B) At the demand of the Allied representatives the following will be made available:—
Firstly, labour services and plant required for the maintenance or operation of any of the six categories mentioned in para. (A) above; and secondly, any information or records that may be required by the Allied representatives in connection with the same.

(C) At the demand of the Allied representatives all facilities will be provided to move Allied troops and agencies, their equipment and supplies on railways, roads and other land command or in German sea, air or land. Pending the release of such prisoners of war, the German authorities will, at the request of the Allied representatives, provide them with adequate food, clothing, shelter, medical attention and money in accordance with their rank or official position.

A Technical Victory, But Worst Set-Back

Balance Sheet Of Okinawa Campaign Is Worse Than Pearl Harbour, Says Washington Columnist

NEW YORK, June 4 (Reuter): THE OKINAWA ISLAND CAMPAIGN IS DESCRIBED AS A FIASCO AND A SETBACK AND, WHAT HE CALLS, AN EXAMPLE OF MILITARY INCOMPETENCE, WORSE THAN PEARL HARBOR, BY THE WASHINGTON COLUMNIST DAVID LAWRENCE, WRITING IN THE CONSERVATIVE, "NEW YORK SUN", TO-DAY.

"The true story is beginning to leak out in the figures of casualties," he says, "These of course could not be suppressed. They show that Okinawa, while a victory in the sense that we have obtained our objectives finally, is the worst setback we have suffered in the Pacific."

PRESIDENT TRUMAN ON FRIDAY SAID, UNITED STATES ARMY, MARINE AND NAVY CASUALTIES ON OKINAWA FROM MARCH 18 TO MAY 29 TOTALLED 10,221 KILLED AND MISSING, AND 27,704 WOUNDED.

JAPANESE DEATHS WERE NEARLY SIX TIMES GREATER THAN AMERICAN.

U. S. TROOPS LAND ON OKAWU. Making their second leapfrog landing within a week, American troops have landed on Okinawa Peninsula in Okinawa, and swept half across the island. Naha, the capital, is in the hands of the Americans.

The landing—which in reaching this long-island-at-aerodrome makes a vital contribution to the present full-scale preparations to convert Okinawa into the Allies' biggest bombing base—was made against slight opposition. Admiral Nimitz announced from Guam, a 1,200 yard beach-head was quickly secured, and marines are now constructing bridges to Onoyama Island, in the centre of Naha harbor.

At the same time, over 400 Superfortresses dropped 3,000 tons of fire-bombs on Kobe (on Sonshu Island in the Japanese mainland), one of the gateways to south-western Japan, and also one of Japan's two largest ports.

DEEPER INTO LUZON. General MacArthur announces that his forces on Luzon have driven deeper into the Japanese defence lines north of Santa Fe. On Mindanao, all Japanese resistance at the Palang River crossing has been broken by elements of the 31st Division moving down the Kibawe Talomo trail.

A Tokyo broadcast picked up in Melbourne to-day said that Allied forces are attacking Sandakan, capital of British North Borneo.

TWO U. S. DESTROYERS LOST.

From Washington last night came a United States Navy Department announcement that two destroyers—"Morrison" and "Luce" had been lost off Okinawa with heavy casualties.

Stiff Fight In Pegu Area,

ALPSEA, June 4 (A.P.I.): Japanese troops in Eastern Burma are attempting to cross to the west bank of the Sittoung River in the Pegu area to force a bridgehead which would help their stragglers cut off by the British and Indian held Mandalay-Rangoon line to escape across the river eastwards, writes Michael MacDonagh, A. P. I. war correspondent.

Stiff actions are taking place in the Pegu area where stragglers are collecting before trying to dash eastwards into the Shan Hills. The Japanese here are well-armed and have apparently been equipping themselves for hidden dumps.

Latest reports indicate that there are still about 14,500 Japanese west of the Mandalay-Rangoon railway and about 55,000 east of the Sittoung River and along the Tenneserim coast.

Cripps' Foreword To Listowel's Pamphlet

LONDON, June 4. (Reuter): Sir Stafford Cripps, author of the Cripps Offer to India, is writing a foreword to a pamphlet on a plan for India which Lord Listowel, chairman of the Cripps Committee, has just published.

Lord Listowel to-day told E. Fraser, Washington Reuter's political correspondent, that no title had yet been given to the pamphlet which would consist of 4,000 words and would be ready well before the polling day.

"I want the people to realise the vast importance of getting the right policy for India," said Lord Listowel, "and in this pamphlet, I will try to explain in simple terms a progressive policy for India in the hope that in the new parliament majority members will back such a proposal."

"If the deadlock continues, the position in India will be extremely serious and it is most important that the new parliament had its mind made up to end the impasse."

Lord Listowel added that his proposed policy for India was quite separate from any official statement of policy that might emerge from the British Government at an early date.

Annual Output Of Singham Workshop Will Be 50 Locomotives

LONDON, June 4. (U.P.A.): India should be producing her full requirements of locomotives with a possible export margin, according to Sir Arthur Griffin, Chief Commissioner of the Indian Railway Board.

The "Financial News" reported that machinery, costing £225,000 already has been ordered from the United Kingdom.

The output of the Singham workshop, which was transferred to Tawa last Saturday, will be a minimum of 50 locomotives per year.

Judge's Remark In Mental Hospital Case

LAHORE, June 4. (A.P.I.): A "ha-beas corpus" challenging the validity of the detention of Rana Bhai Singh of Bhajji State under Regulation III of 1918 in the Mental Hospital was heard to-day by a Division Bench of the Lahore High Court consisting of Justices Sir Abdul Rahman and Mr. Justice Mohd. Munir.

The Advocate General of India, Mr. N. P. Engineer, appeared for the Crown and Mr. K. L. Gauba, Bar-at-Law represented the petitioner.

At the outset Justice Sir Abdul Rahman asked whether the Advocate General for India was placing any material on record to show what was the opinion of the Governor General at the time when the warrant was issued and when the Ordinance was promulgated.

Mr. Engineer replied that he was not placing any material on record, but would make some submissions and would rely on the fact that the property of which the Lordships could conclude as to what the opinion of the Governor General was.

Justice Sir Abdul Rahman remarked that it was not a question of presumption but of fact. It was nowhere mentioned in the warrant that the Rana was insane.

The Advocate General: It need not say so.

Justice Sir Abdul Rahman: You must remember when this Order was made, the Ordinance was not in existence.

The Advocate General: The Ordinance being retrospective the warrant is to be read as made under the regulation as amended by the Ordinance.

The Advocate General cited a number of authorities to show the extent to which the course had gone in regard to presumptions to be drawn from Official Orders.

The Advocate General said, concluded when the Court rose for the day.

At the outset he gave the good news that the Government has withdrawn the scheme of motor transport.

This news created a very lively atmosphere. Mr. Bhagvat spoke for well over an hour and advised the motor company proprietors in appropriate words. He said, "although the Government has withdrawn the scheme, we must be careful, on the contrary we must unite. You must remember that had the Government carried out the scheme many of the families would have been run down to earth," he said.

 GOVT. WITHDRAWS MOTOR TRANSPORT SCHEME

(From A Correspondent)

KARHAD, June 2. A private meeting of the chief representatives of the District Motor Companies was held in the office of the Karhad Chiplun Motor Transport Office. Mr. Bhagvat, leader from Karhad, specially came to attend the meeting.

At the outset he gave the good news that the Government has withdrawn the scheme of motor transport.

This news created a very lively atmosphere. Mr. Bhagvat spoke for well over an hour and advised the motor company proprietors in appropriate words. He said, "although the Government has withdrawn the scheme, we must be careful, on the contrary we must unite. You must remember that had the Government carried out the scheme many of the families would have been run down to earth," he said.

Amery Must Go, Demands Mrs. Pandit

HOLDS LINLITHGOW RAJ RESPONSIBLE FOR BENGAL FAMINE TRAGEDY

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4. (Reuter): Statement issued on behalf of Mrs. Vijayalakshmi Pandit on the report of the Bengal Famine Commission declares that Mr. L. S. Amery should immediately resign office as Secretary for India "as did Mr. Austen Chamberlain in 1917 when the Mesopotamia report disclosed utter incompetence of the then Government of India."

Mrs. Pandit declares, "Lord Linlithgow's personal and official responsibility for the Bengal tragedy which caused the loss of a million and half human beings—most of them children—must be made manifest to the House of Commons is obviously the greatest."

"During six critical and all important months preceding the famine he made three changes in the executive of the Bengal Government in charge of food. For half that period, he held sole charge of the department himself."

"Lord Linlithgow must, therefore, be held accountable for the tragedy with his Executive Council, two of whose members are delegates on behalf of the British Government in India."

On the clear and unanimous findings of the commission, Lord Linlithgow and his Executive Council deserve punishment for their callous incompetence. The Bengal ministry has already resigned on the findings of the commission.

Mr. Amery, who is still a member of the Churchill Government should promptly resign office."

MADRAS, June 4. (A.P.I.): The Government of Madras have decided to abolish the National War Front from July 1 and replace it by a Rural Publicity Organisation which will be worked jointly by the Provincial Government and the Government of India.

Only Choice Before Small States

MIRAJ, June 4. (U.P.I.): "The small states which cannot run efficiently all the departments of national progress and administration have only one course left before them, viz. to merge in the neighboring British Provinces in one way or other," observed Mr. Shankarrao Date, Member of the Mavankar Inquiry Committee, in an interview.

As regards the bigger States, Mr. Date said that they should be treated as separate Provinces and part and parcel of the federated Indian Union.

FACT No. 1

THE age of miracles is past. If today India's cotton textile industry was not producing an adequate yardage of cloth, then, however great our need of dhoties, sarees, towels, sheets, shirts and other essentials, our demand must go unmet.

Is it a fact that India's cotton textile industry is not producing cloth in adequate quantity?

No. The fact is that the Industry produced on an average, before the war, 3,800 million yards annually as against 4,800 million yards now. If the production of the cotton handloom industry is also included, and if allowances are made for the cloth sent out of the country and supplied against defence requirements, there was available in the year 1943-44 5,868 million yards, as against the prewar average of 6,260 million yards, a reduction of only 6% from peace-time supplies.

These figures convincingly prove that the responsibility for the current shortage assuredly does not lie at the door of the Indian cotton textile industry. The industry has adequately met the wartime challenge to produce enough for the Services and civilians alike.

One of a series of statements of fact for the information of the public.

De Gaulle Wants 'Big 5' Conference On Levant Situation

Farouk's Call To Unity To Safeguard Syria's Independence

LONDON, June 5. (Reuter): GENERAL DE GAULLE IN PARIS HAD RECEIVED THE BRITISH, UNITED STATES AND SOVIET AMBASSADORS TO FRANCE. HE IS BELIEVED TO HAVE SOUNDED THEM ON THE POSSIBILITIES OF CALLING A 'BIG FIVE' CONFERENCE ON THE SITUATION IN THE LEVANT, BUT NO NEW MOVES FOR A SETTLEMENT WERE MADE.

CAIRO, June 4. (Reuter): Farouk, King of Egypt, in a detailed account of the situation in the Levant, presented by the Syrian and Lebanese delegations to the Arab League Council, adjourned until to-morrow afternoon when discussion on the situation will be resumed.

This was announced to-night in an official communiqué. Delegates from all the states represented spoke at the public session. Their speeches were marked by bitter criticism of the French, and calls for energetic action.

In a message of welcome to the delegates, King Farouk said: "Let us work hand in hand for the realization of complete sovereignty and full independence for Syria and the Lebanon as well as for the maintenance of the peace and security of both countries."

"CALM ATMOSPHERE". If such a "big two" note were sent to Moscow it is presumed that the attempt to impose the veto against the supreme need of unity between the powers and the possibility of endangering the Conference's acceptance of the charter if rigid interpretation of the veto were insisted on.

A delay of a day or two is expected before the definite stage of the controversy is reached. It is emphasised in well informed quarters that the dispute is being argued in an atmosphere of calm and good-will.

IBN SAUD'S CONDEMNATION. The Deputy Minister of Saudi Arabia said that King Ibn Saud had informed the French envoy that his Government was deeply concerned at the French policy.

While the meeting was in progress, the British and Syrian authorities investigating the deaths of Syrian soldiers captured by the French in fighting in Damascus last week have found the bodies of 30 such persons in a French fort near French at Meese, five miles west of the city. Medical experts are examining the bodies.

SUBHAS BOSE RESHUFFLES CABINET

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4. (U.P.A.): A Japanese dispatch from Singapore announced that Subhas Chandra Bose made several changes in the Cabinet of his Japanese sponsored "Free Government of India." The Ministries of State, Supply, Manpower, and Propaganda were affected by the reshuffle, the dispatch said.

COMMUNIST LEADERS EXCLUDED.

CRUNGING, June 4. (U.P.A.): The Kwangsi Province newspaper "Yu Lin Jih Pao" to-day said that Kwangsi authorities executed four leaders of the Chinese Communist Guerrillas, including former General Chang Yen, former leader of the 19th Army in Shanghai's war of resistance in 1937, on charges of rebellion.

The paper said that Central Government forces found a document outlining plans for enlarging the operations and recommending Communist control and recommending "the region of propaganda against the Kuomintang Government and its leaders, using charges of corruption."

MEDICAL COLLEGE FOR ALIGARH

(From Our Own Correspondent)

ALIGARH, May 31. Nawab Mohd Jamali Khan Sahab, Chairman, Committee of Action and President U.P. Muslim League, has issued the following appeal in connection with the collection of funds for the Muslim University Medical College to all the branches of the League:

"The main cause of the paucity of Muslims in the medical profession is the want of opportunity for them to acquire medical education. There are only two Medical Colleges in this province and Muslims are admitted to them only with great difficulty and in very small numbers. In spite of the determined and persistent efforts made by the Muslim League, no tangible success could be achieved in this direction. To fulfil this need the authorities of the Aligarh Muslim University, which is the educational centre of the Muslims, contemplate opening a Medical College in the University, so that the difficulties which confront the Muslim in respect of medical education may be removed."

A large sum of money is required to implement this scheme and the collection of funds is a very responsible task. It has therefore been arranged to send deputations consisting of responsible persons to collect funds at different centres. The members of the deputations will need the co-operation of local gentlemen. I strongly appeal to the Office-bearers of all the District and City Leagues to assist the deputations sincerely and enthusiastically in achieving this noble object. It is our national duty and we should not spare any effort in doing this duty."

V. R. NAYANAR MEMORIAL

CALICUT, (By Mail).

The name of the late Mr. V. R. Nayanar was a household word all over Malabar. His services to the country in the sphere of constructive activity were unique. His work as a member of the Servants of India Society, during the last 15 years, touched all aspects of the life of the people. And there was nothing he touched which he did not raise to a higher level. His services in connection with relief work of all kind—especially during the last cholera epidemic and earlier during the floods and the cyclone that laid waste the countryside are well-known.

To perpetuate his memory by founding a RURAL WORKERS' LIBRARY and by helping Orphan (previously Harijan) children with scholarships for higher (including technical) studies, a V. R. NAYANAR MEMORIAL FUND COMMITTEE has been formed with Mr. M. M. Kunhiraman as President, Mr. R. Raman Menon and Ch. Kunhappa as Secretaries and Mr. K. Raman Kutty Nair (Secretary of the Malabar Dt. Co-operative Bank) as Treasurer.

All contributions may kindly be sent to the Treasurer, V. R. Nayanar Memorial Fund, c/o The Malabar Dt. Co-operative Bank, Calicut.

Now this has been stopped. Virtually the only cheques on which the bank will pay cash are uncrossed ones presented by the drawer or his known agent, so that the black marketer is now either forced to have a record kept of his dealings or attempt to handle thousands of pounds involved in huge numbers of single notes.—Reuter.

British Banks Strike Blow To Eviders Of Income Tax

LONDON, June 4. British Banks have struck a blow which may succeed in putting the black market out of business, and which effectively ends the favourite dodge for evading income-tax.

They have from to-day banned the cashing of crossed cheques worth over £10 Sterling.

Black marketers had kept their transactions secret from investigating agents by making payments in cash. But on April 30, Government withdrew from circulation all bank notes over £5 and these notes ceased to be legal tender.

Black Marketeers replied by taking payment in crossed cheques, which they could either cash themselves or through friends, in either case without any record of the deal appearing in their banking accounts.

Now this has been stopped. Virtually the only cheques on which the bank will pay cash are uncrossed ones presented by the drawer or his known agent, so that the black marketer is now either forced to have a record kept of his dealings or attempt to handle thousands of pounds involved in huge numbers of single notes.—Reuter.

NEWS AND VIEWS OF FORTHCOMING FILMS AND FILM PERSONALITIES

By SARDI

New Films

There are three new pictures this week: "Yateem", "Preet" and "Ashirwad". The last two were screened for the first time on Saturday evening—"Preet" at 4 p.m. and "Ashirwad" at 7-15 p.m. This was a very unwise move on the part of the makers and exhibitors, as it meant that any reviewer wishing to give his readers his opinion of the two films, had to sit through both the shows in succession—a very exhausting task even in better weather than that which prevails at present. This was the first time that such a situation arose. Not so long ago, when "Lala-Majnu" had its premiere at almost the same time, on the same day another Indian film also had its opening. A little co-operation amongst film-makers and exhibitors, would soon put an end to such a state of affairs.

A measure that would help the reviewer would be that of complimentary being issued to the Press for any day and any show. This could be done by reserving a certain number of seats at each show during the first week. It would certainly not entail very great financial loss to any management. To facilitate matters, film editors of local journals, and other reviewers, might be consulted in regard to the day and the show most convenient for them to attend.

The following one is a review while the others are merely brief descriptions for the guidance of those who care to read this page:

Majestic

"Preet" (Krishin Movietone). Stars: Suvarnalata, Nazir. Advance report of this picture, unfortunately, gave no indication whatever of its story, apart from stating that melodrama and romance are woven together in it. The picture has a star-studded cast including the lovers of "Lala-Majnu" and Snehprabha, Chandramohan, Fahari Sanyal, Gope and Gulab. There are as many as 13 songs in the picture—compositions of Madhok and Wali. They have been set to music by Bulo C. Raney.

Taj Talkies

"Ashirwad" (Kirti Pictures). Stars: Lalita Pawar, Balwant Singh.

All one can make out from advance reports of this film, is that it tells the story of an ill-fated girl who wins her lover's affection by her gentleness and patience; but a twist of fate deprives her of her happiness. Nyampalli and Jilloobal are in the cast along with the late Vatsala.

American Racial Arrogance Runs Amuck

NEW YORK, June 4. (Reuter): Urging the United States to close its doors to Asiatic immigration, the Hearst Newspaper Chain in an editorial head "Signs of Danger" to-day asserts that "with the public engrossed in the many problems of the year

Another Pancholi 'Posy'
News reaches me that the maker of "Shirin Farhad", in my opinion the greatest cinematic disappointment of recent times, has completed the shooting of his next picture titled "Kaise Kahun?" The film has been directed by Moti Gidwani who wielded the megaphone for the first Indian talkie ever made.

Producer Pancholi seems to have a soft corner in his heart for Ragini who is once again cast in the feminine lead. Akhtar, Najmal, Butt and Ajmal will lend her support—apart, of course, from the well-known high-power Pancholi publicity pep.

A blurb says: "Shirin Farhad" has created a storm—of fury?

Ragini Rains

No, it is not a spelling nor a printer's devil's error. Ragini may reign in the hearts of some, but so far as I am concerned, she threatens to drop as the rain from the stormy film firmament—and not so gently either, considering the amount of weight she carries. This downpour is promised once again in Producer Intilaj Ali Taj's "Dumak", which is currently on the sets of the Pancholi Studios. The direction is to be in the hands of Ravi Dave. Others in the cast will be Amrity, Radhika Vinod and Om Prakash—ever heard of them? The songs have been composed by Madhok and set to music by Amarnath.

Jayanti Social

I am surprised that the publicity officer of Jayant Films has not thought of describing their next film "Akash Deep" as a giant of a picture. May be he is afraid of finding himself between the devil of a sceptical public which seems extravagant terms, and the deep sea of punning in which it would not be so difficult to drown—judging by the past attempts of many publicity punsters of the Indian screen.

A news flash from Jayant Films tells me that in "Akash Deep", Nand-rekar and Suraya, form a lovable pair. Is that all? What about letting them be a little loving a swell?—At arms length of course, as usual on our local screen. Otherwise, Mother Grundy may go off the deep and after seeing "Akash Deep".

The story of this film is from the pen of Bhagwati Charan Verma who has also written the film script besides acting as production chief. Ramchandra Pal is responsible for the musical score.

Hollywood Mania

A new disease is said to have taken possession of many members of the Indian film world. It takes the form of an obsession to visit that tinsel city called Hollywood. The epidemic started with Zahur Raja and his crony Zabab, was passed on, I hear, to Kishore Sahu, and has now attacked Jayant Films. After completing two pictures, plans to go to Hollywood with a galaxy of Indian artists for the purpose of making a technicolour picture there! Let us hope that if, for some reason, he does not come back with any such film, he will atleast bring some holly for Christmas celebrations and some wood for the construction of better film-sets than exist at present. But maybe these poor stricken souls like Raja and Desai will not, after all, go to the Hollywood asylum. I hear that the best cure is psycho-analysis by a publicity-wise critic. The present one offers the treatment free of charge.

Jayant Desai, however, means to carry on with the show though something inside his heart is grieving for the Hollywood Klieg lights. His next production will be "Tadbir", starring Saigal and Suraya, described as the "king and queen of melody"—what about melodrama?

Then, just to prove what a lover of history he is, within a fortnight of starring "Tadbir", he intends to begin work on "Sahansah Jahangir". Another lesson in history like "Chandragupta"—what. Soon school children will need no text books, nor grown-ups need books.

A Sally At Sahu

No—no girl called Sally is reaching for Kishore Sahu but only a reference from Sardi to say that he is saddened that a man of Kishore's originality and intelligence permits his advertising agent to call his next picture, "Veer Kunai", a "super" historical. "Super" is a prefix which, according to Oxford dictionary, "modifies the sense of the words to which it is attached with any of the following meanings: on the top, further, exceedingly, to an exceptional degree, in or to excess, more, than." Not one of these meanings fits in with "historical". Hence, I conclude, that, due to a typing error, (to grant the advertising agent the benefit of the doubt) the adjective "super" had the tip of its tail decked, and became "super"; which makes it even worse, for I had expected at least Kishore not to be a victim of blatant publicity coughed in nauseating superlatives.

"Veer Kunai" deals with the period of Ashok. Besides Kishore, the cast includes veteran Durga Khote and mid-eyed Sobhana Samarth. Sahu is always giving us a new angle on things. How about putting sense into publicity nonsense as I suggested in these columns a few weeks ago. Come on, Kishore, give your colleagues a lead.

PRABHAT'S "CHAND" CELEBRATES SILVER JUBILEE AT KRISHNA

The film which marked Begum Paro's screen debut, enters its twenty-fifth week to-day. Prem, Adib, one of our best actors, plays the male lead opposite the Begum. The music is light and the songs catchy. The picture was directed by D. D. Kashyap.

Minerva Talkies

"Yateem" (Central Studios)
Stars: Rakub—Chandraprabha.
Director: Zia Sarbady.

What would otherwise have been a fine study in character, is marred by an ill-developed and disconnected story, overacting, miscasting and poor direction. A rich man ruins himself with vicious living and commits suicide. His wife and child, are driven into the streets. The mother and child are separated by a motor accident, and the son Chhabla grows up an orphan in the slums and finally, all unknown, becomes a non-rent-paying tenant, of his own mother. He is the leader of a gang of mawalis and the virtual king of the gullies.

He rescues a damsel from the whip of a devilish sister, and brings her to live in his hovel. A disinherited knight, Jyotin comes along, saves Chhabla from an assassin's knife and also comes to live in the hovel.

The guest and the girl fall for each other and Chhabla, his dreams shattered, is in for a bad time. He again puts them both under obligation by saving Jyotin from the gallows, goes to the wars and returns blinded, to give his blood to revive the flickering life of Jyotin.

But he has his compensation. He finds solace in the arms of his long lost mother at the very lamp post where the sad parting had occurred. Yakub, cast in the role of Chhabla, spoils the role with too much clowning; otherwise his work is good.

Chandraprabha, in the female lead, has a good singing voice, but her acting ability is nil. The director is not perhaps aware that there are such things as photogenic and non-photogenic complexions.

The rank over-acting which is a general feature seems something for which the director is responsible more than the actors. The whole thing is done more in the nature of a farce than a drama. The make-up is bad, the photography mediocre. There are two good songs, plenty of horse play, and some telling gags.

New York Cotton Quotations
Sag On Liquidation
NEW YORK, June 4.

Prices advanced on accumulation of price-fixing against textile awards. The market was quiet and the week-end interim loan rate did not figure as a market feature, and quotations were slightly higher. A drive in liquidation and hedges and piling out of price-fixing together with a tendency to emphasise improved crop news and continued uncertainties in connection with legislative matters. A scattering of hedges supplied small routine trade demands and the market closed steady.

Cloudy International Situation Makes Wall Street Market Cautious

NEW YORK, June 4. Wall Street opened irregular and moderately active. Buyers and sellers were timid, although some customers were bullish regarding reconversion programme and peacetime business prospects. However some accounts were criticised on the idea that many leaders looked top-heavy. Scattered rallies, utilities and industrials declined fractionally towards midday. The demand for steel, assorted industrials and a few utilities showed down sliding tendencies. Bias for metal shares were apparently based on the opinion that this group was behind the recent surge. Sentiment towards the close was slightly below best and the cloudy international situation was a cautionary argument. The market closed with American Telephone (11-1/4) 111-3/8, Amerex Corporation (30-3/4) 30-3/8, Amalgamated Copper (50) 50-3/4, Chase National Bank (43-1/4) 43-1/4, Consolidated Oil (16-1/4) 16-1/8, Firestone Tyre (61) 61, General Electric (44-1/8) 44-1/8, International Nickel (34-3/4) 34-7/8, National City (44-3/4) 44-3/4, New York Central (29) 28-3/4, Sococom vacuum (16-1/8) 16-1/4, Texas Corporation (24-3/4) 24-3/4, Union Carbide (40-3/4) 40-1/2, U. Petroleum Requirements
Require Maximum Capacity
WASHINGTON, June 4.

The Petroleum Administration stated that of 7,000,000 barrels of crude oil produced throughout the United States since Pearl Harbour, the United States has furnished about 1/3 per cent, while 22 per cent of 2,600,000,000 barrels of gasoline came from United States refineries. Supplying military and essential civilian petroleum requirements requires a maximum capacity of 385 refineries in the United States and 65 in the United Nations abroad.—Reuter.

Russia Negotiates For 6 Billion Dollars Credit
